Agenda Item	The P&C has called a special meeting to seek membership approval of fundraising activities to occur at the Kangaroo Valley Ladies Lunch
Notes	See attached Appendix 1 for detailed description of all activities. <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Ladies Long Lunch Raffle to be held online prior to the event <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ To register raffles on an online platform, the fundraising cause must be for a charity/not for profit ○ Emma looked at two online platforms with varying fees and charges. She thought it was best to go with Rafflelink, the platform with the one service fee of $39.00. The raffle will be drawn at the event ○ Trudie moved for the P&C to cover the service fee of $39.00 for the online raffle platform <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ All in favour- Approved 2. Silent Auction <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Intended for the silent auction to be held at the event. Discussion around those who would like to participate but could not attend and the possibility for the silent auction to take place online. Emma will need to explore this option further ○ Trudie moved for P&C approval to hold the silent auction online with the winners to be awarded at the event <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ All in favour – Approved Brief discussion about Ladies Long Lunch <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Not an official P&C event however the fundraising activities will be run through the P&C - This is not a tax deductible event. Building Funds are tax deductible - Wildwood will donate the profits from beverage sales from the event to the P&C - Still seeking sponsors and so far sponsors have been generous - A big thank you to those organising and contributing: Emma, Lisa, Niki, Tino and Linda, Sally, Alex, Angie, Katerina, Sarah, The Hive brands have also been generous, numerous local businesses - Alex from Wildwood has generously allowed the function to take place with the use of the space, with the only cost involved is the cleaning and staffing. 70 tickets sold out with an additional 5
